Dear Mr. Jessy;

I'm writing you with respect to your company not publishing my ebooks as per your contractual arrangement with me.

I have contacted you several times by email and have gotten the same response back that the ebooks are not being published because they are publicly available for free.

Furthermore, your company continually sends me emails to confirm that I hold the rights to all my ebooks or they will leave my account blocked.

This activity is in violation of the Americans With Disabilities Act, Since I am blind.

I have informed your company multiple times by email That these ebooks are not publicly available for free and should be published by your company as per our contract.

0201-70-81:1
128811203
Since, your company refuses to publish these two ebooks (Computer Hacker and Desert Sands), I am forced to bring you to court and sue you for $300 billion for disability discrimination.

You Author,
Dr. Marco Bitetto

Thanks for publishing with Amazon. We're contacting you regarding the following book(s):
